

THE LINK

Edition 8 27th October 2023

Dear Parents & carers,

Welcome to The Link as we reach the end of the first half term and for pupils who have already finished their week, we hope you enjoy a lovely and restful half term break. Today in school, staff have been spending the day involved in Professional Development activities and preparation for pupils returning after the half term break.

Wow! what an absolutely amazing performance of Six, The Musical! The pupils performing were amazing, supported by fellow pupils backstage, front of house and technical/lighting. Also, huge thanks to Mr Wise and Ms Chapman, other staff who supported meet and greet, refreshments and supervision and to parents, carers and helpers for their contribution, whatever the scale, to make the show so special. I am sure that if you were fortunate enough to have come along to watch, you were as bowled over by the show as I was. Well done to all involved!

This half term has seen a significant amount of work completed in lessons as teachers help pupils gain more knowledge in their journey through the curriculum. Of course, school is about more than just lessons, so it has been lovely to see pupils involved in the extra curricular events that are too numerous to name. However, returning to the biggest whole school event this term, we are very pleased to share the fantastic video that was made by year 11 pupils Finn Middleton of Church Stretton School Sponsored Walk 2023! Fantastic Finn - thank you!

Enjoy the half term break and we look forward to welcoming pupils back on Monday 06th November.

Calling all EQUESTRIANS:

Mrs Juliet Orme, has kindly offered to take on the administration of a Church Stretton Equestrian Team. This involves entering competitions as an individual and sometimes as a team to represent the school in NSEA competitions.

In order to take part in NSEA competitions, a school needs to affiliate its riding squad to the NSEA. The school riding squad is made up of girls and boys of all ages and equestrian competitions are one of the few activities in which riders compete as equals, regardless of their age, sex or the size of their horse. You can find more information here: NSEA - Industry experts & providers of inter-school equestrian competitions

(For anyone who already plays an instrument)

The Other Side of Truth - Beverley Naidoo

Rating - * * * * * * 5/5

The Other Side of Truth is a moving story of two children sent away to a new country, and their experiences facing danger, separation and fear.

Sade (pronounced Shad-deh, rasing your voice on the second syllable) and her brother Femi's father is a Nigerian journalist who will write nothing but the truth but when one of his articles has terrible consequences, both children are put in awful peril. This story made me feel afraid for Sade and Femi, but also for their father, as they lose touch together when separated apart. Beverley Naidoo has created a meaningful masterpiece that shows the importance of love, trust and kindness.

Online Safety Update

Your child's screen time

What is the problem?

Spending time online and on devices can be a positive thing. But high levels of screen time can put your child more at risk of:

Being bullied online

Abuse and grooming (when someone builds a relationship with a child to exploit or abuse them)

Seeing inappropriate content

Not getting enough sleep and exercise

4 steps you can take to protect your child.

1. Set parental controls on devices

Use parental controls to restrict access to in-app purchases and explicit or age-rated content, and, on some devices, how long they can spend on the device.

You will need to set a password. Make sure it is different from the password used to access the device, and that your child does not know it.

Parental controls are usually located under 'Settings.' See below for more detailed instructions for different devices.

2. Agree rules on screen time

There are mixed views on 'safe' screen time, but you could agree some limits to stop screen time interfering with your child's sleep or family activities:

Make a plan together and stick to it. You could set media-free times and zones, like during meals or in bedrooms.

Try to avoid screens an hour before bedtime.

Model the behaviour you want to see – which may mean no screen time for you at the times agreed with your child. Children are more likely to learn from example.

Try to minimise snacking during screen time.

Turn not using screens into a game, using apps like Forest, where not using devices is rewarded

3. Talk to your child about staying safe online

Tell them:

To be aware that anyone can pretend to be a child online.

If they talk to people they do not know, not to give away personal information – like what street they live on or where they go to school, or to share their location with them. To say no to any requests, they get for images or videos, and stop talking to the other person if they are asked for these things.

To set their profiles to private, to limit what others can see.

To be 'share aware' – think carefully about what they share and with whom. Once it is out there, they have no control over what the other person does with it. Remember, it is illegal to take, share or view sexual images of under-18s, full stop!

If they see something that upsets them, or someone bullies them, to tell an adult they trust.

Do not feel confident starting a conversation with your child about what they are up to online? Read this advice from the NSPCC: https://www.nspcc.org.uk/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/

4. Encourage off-screen activities

Help your child get active for the recommended 60 minutes a day:

See nhs.uk/change4life/activities for free ideas for activities and games. Try an app that's designed to get children active – see the examples at internetmatters.org/resources/apps-guide/apps-to-help-kids-get-active/

STRETTON LIVE LOUNGE REVIEW

Enjoyed by many students,

The live lounge gave students a platform to perform to their peers in a supportive environment and with professional sound and lighting design. Our latest Live Lounge took place just last week, it was a wonderful time, and it felt as if we were all one big family. the vocals and the instruments were stunning, and it was only £1 pound, which was going towards our learning and providing more instruments. one thing I would change was if u put it out more public, for example in the hall as I'm sure many people would love to see it. oh, and I forgot to mention there was cake as well. Overall, it was an amazing experience for all, and I thoroughly enjoyed it.
