Dear Parents and Guardians

Thank you to all parents and guardians of Year 10 and Year 11 students who have already purchased the GCSE History revision guides.

A number of families have contacted us to let us know that students are using revision guides previously purchased by older siblings. Whilst this is completely acceptable for most of the course. However, these guides will not include the materials needed for the new Anglo-Saxon and Norman England unit. To support these students, I have created a separate item on ParentPay for those who only require the Anglo-Saxon resources. This is priced at £5 and includes both the in-school study guide and the Edexcel revision guide.

If you have already purchased the full revision guide set for a current Year 10 or Year 11 student, these resources are already included and will be provided automatically, so there is no need to take any further action.

For families who have not yet purchased the revision guides, the full set remains available through ParentPay for £16.50. These guides are highly recommended and provide valuable support for revision throughout the GCSE course.

Students who are eligible for Pupil Premium funding will receive all revision resources at no additional cost.

Thank you for your continued support.
