

RE

	Strand 1 (Equal Weighting)	Strand 2 (Equal Weighting)	Strand 3 (Equal Weighting)	Strand 4 (Equal Weighting)	Strand 5 (Equal Weighting)
	ENQUIRE	CONNECT	RESPOND	APPLY	EVALUATE
9	All the steps below, and I can also... accurately describe and explain the importance of religious ideas.	All the steps below, and I can also... analyse ideas within religions and give detailed explanations about how they are connected.	All the steps below, and I can also... respond to religious views on a range of contemporary moral issues by relating these to both my own and others' experiences.	All the steps below, and I can also... use a wide range of appropriately selected sources to present and evidence arguments.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the ideas by justifying how and why the beliefs and ideas are important to the lives and values of believers and by evaluating how issues arising will affect the wider society.
8	All the steps below, and I can also... interpret a wide range of key ideas specific to the religion studied.	All the steps below, and I can also... analyse similarities and differences between philosophical ideas.	All the steps below, and I can also... respond to religious views on a range of contemporary moral issues by relating these to both my own and others' experiences.	All the steps below, and I can also... apply my responses by giving selected supportive evidence of how my response would affect my life, the lives of others, society and global affairs.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the ideas by giving logical and reasoned explanations of the importance of beliefs and ideas to the lives and values of believers and through identifying and explaining issues that affect the wider society.
7	All the steps below, and I can also... explain connections between several different ideas.	All the steps below, and I can also... describe the historical and cultural connection between belief, practice and lifestyles.	All the steps below, and I can also... respond to the teachings and experiences of inspirational people by relating them to my own and others' experiences.	All the steps below, and I can also... give evidence to support how my responses would affect lives and society and can draw on a range of sources to present evidence.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the ideas and beliefs by giving logical and reasoned explanations of the importance of beliefs to the lives and values of believers and through identifying and explaining issues that affect the wider society.
6	All the steps below, and I can also... explain key connections between different ideas.	All the steps below, and I can also... accurately connect ideas within beliefs and practices and within different denominations of a religion.	All the steps below, and I can also... sensitively respond to the experiences and feelings of others, especially those with faith.	All the steps below, and I can also... give evidence to support how my responses would affect lives and can draw on a range of sources to present evidence.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the beliefs and ideas by explaining their value to believers and by identifying and describing some important issues that they raise.
5	All the steps below, and I can also... explain a range of key ideas that are specific to particular religions studied.	All the steps below, and I can also... explain how religious ideas are connected within beliefs and practices.	All the steps below, and I can also... give a detailed explanation for my response to a religious idea and justify it based on a coherent argument.	All the steps below, and I can also... select and explain well-chosen examples of how my responses would affect my life, the lives of others, and wider society.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the beliefs and ideas by explaining their value to believers and by identifying and describing some important issues that they raise.
4	All the steps below, and I can also... explain key ideas that are common to many religions.	All the steps below, and I can also... explain how religious ideas are connected within religious beliefs.	All the steps below, and I can also... explain my own responses to religious ideas with justification.	All the steps below, and I can also... explain significant examples of how my responses could or would affect my life or the lives of others.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the beliefs and ideas by explaining their value to believers and by identifying and describing some issues that they raise.
3	All the steps below, and I can also... explain key ideas that are specific to particular religions studied.	All the steps below, and I can also... connect ideas within beliefs and practices and describe how they are expressed.	All the steps below, and I can also... explain my own responses to religious ideas.	All the steps below, and I can also... select and explain examples of how my responses to ideas are, or can be, applied in both my life, and the lives of others.	All the steps below, and I can also... evaluate the beliefs and ideas by describing their value to believers and by identifying and describing an issue raised.
2	All the steps below, and I can also... describe key ideas that are specific to particular religions studied.	All the steps below, and I can also... describe in greater detail how religious ideas fit within beliefs and practices.	All the steps below, and I can also... explain my own response to ideas.	All the steps below, and I can also... describe examples of how my response can be applied in my life and the lives of others.	All the steps below, and I can also... connect religious perspectives in a basic way using various links.
1	I can... - distinguish between fact and belief. - describe key ideas that are common to many religions. - describe religious events, rituals and practices in a basic way.	I can... describe how religious ideas fit within beliefs and practices.	I can... - ask questions about ideas and suggest answers. - describe my own response to an idea.	I can... describe examples of how responses can be applied in my life.	I can... express a personal response to beliefs and ideas and make some independent, well-informed and reasoned judgements.